Ray Brownfield, ALC, Receives the Realtors® Land Institute's Most Esteemed 2019 RLI Leadership Award

April 2, 2020 (Oswego IL) – Ray Brownfield, ALC, with Land Pro LLC in Oswego Illinois, received the 2019 Robert C. Meeks, ALC, Distinguished Service Award as part of their RLI Leadership Awards Program. In honor of dedicated, long-time Accredited Land Consultant (ALC) Robert C. Meeks, the Distinguished Service Award is presented to an ALC in recognition of their long-term commitment and service to fellow members, the land profession, and the community.

Brownfield was presented the award by 2020 National President Kyle Hansen, ALC, and RLI CEO Aubrie Kobernus, MBA, RCE, during RLI's Virtual National Land Conference (NLC20) on Monday, March 30. Land professionals from around the country tuned-in online to attend the Virtual NLC20 where four RLI members received awards through the esteemed Realtors® Land Institute Leadership Awards Program. All award recipients are nominated and selected by their peers.

"To receive this award from my peers is a humbling honor. It came as a complete surprise from RLI, whose professional members all distinguish themselves every day by providing the highest level of service to their clients," said Brownfield upon receiving the award.

"The RLI Leadership Awards recognize the land professionals most dedicated to serving our organization and serving our industry. They are truly the best of the best in the business as proven by their service and contributions, and we could not be more proud to have them as a part of RLI," said Kobernus.
